Custom Steps: Beyoğlu in the Footsteps of Artst Women

The Curious Steps: Beyoğlu in the Footsteps of Artst Women was in Kadıköy with Sabancı University Students. Together with the Meşher Gallery, the Curious Steps Program has been organizing the “Curious Steps” program. The walk was in Kadıköy in the footsteps of Artemis Women. In person on May 10th, and digitally on May 26th, and will continue to be held throughout the summer. In the walk, storytellers from Meşher and SU Gender follow traces from the unique lives of women and workers. Through different walks, we provide opportunities for participants to learn about various works and stores of women. Participants encounter the art, and experience a variety of encounters and experiences. For more information, please visit the website or contact the program coordinators.

What's Next Month?

The ProGender+ Program Continues Its Work

In the ProGender+ Program, the focus is on understanding and addressing gender inequalities in different contexts. The program continues to organize workshops and training sessions for professionals and students. For more information about the program and its upcoming events, please visit the website or contact the program coordinators.

Dicke Koğacıoğlu Article Award is Still Open for Applications

The Dicle Koçakoglu Article Award is open for applications until May 28. The award is offered by the SU Gender and is open to researchers and graduate students. The award supports and encourages gender-focused research. For more information about the award and its application process, please visit the website or contact the program coordinators.

Cardinates on Ottoman and Turkish Studies in the Footsteps of Kärkar Culture Heritage

A conference celebrating the contributions of Prof. Barbara Kellner-Henkele to Turcology and Turkish Studies (“Von der Pforte der Glückseligkeit zu den Steppen Mittelasiens”) was organized by Max Weber Stiftung & Orient Institut Istanbul on May 20-22. Hülya Adak delivered a lecture on “Turkish Women and the History of Suffrage.” The conference brought together important scholars of Ottoman and Turkish Studies, such as Jenny White and Malek. Participants discussed gender equality and the development of human rights after World War I. The conference will be published by Max Weber Stiftung.

The Professors’ Program Continues Its Work

Ova from the project team and Zeynep Çetrez, who was appointed as the new Gender Equality Officer at Sabancı Holding, attended the training aimed at strengthening the capacity of gender equality trainers. As such, the training aimed at strengthening the capacity of gender equality trainers, resistances encountered during training, and methods of overcoming resistances. As such, the training aimed at strengthening the capacity of gender equality trainers, resistances encountered during training, and methods of overcoming resistances. As such, the training aimed at strengthening the capacity of gender equality trainers, resistances encountered during training, and methods of overcoming resistances.

Custom Steps: Dicle Koçakoglu Research Award is Still Open for Applications

Researchers who work in the field and work in the field of gender studies that are designed for the Sustainable Development Goals. The Curious Steps: Gender and Development was organized as part of the Sabancı University Diversity and Inclusion Development Program, SU Gender, and the New Park. For more information, please visit the website or contact the program coordinators.