

Gender Cultures in Turkey: Dicle Koğacıođlu Book, edited by Sabancı University FASS faculty members and SU Gender members Ayşecan Terziođlu and Cenk Özbay, published in June, 2019 by İletişim, contains the selected works of researchers who participated in the Dicle Koğacıođlu Article Award since 2010 or of those who contributed by making presentations at the conference. The book tackles concepts such as sociology of law, gender studies, inequality, and discrimination that were prominent in Dicle Koğacıođlu's works. It is divided into three sections: cities and spaces, languages and subjectivities, masculinities and sexualities. The book makes us very happy and shows the importance of the solidarity knitted around this article award. We would like to thank everyone who contributed to the publication as well as to Dicle's family, colleagues, friends, and students.

Dicle Koğacıođlu Article Award was created in memory of our colleague and friend, sociologist Dicle Koğacıođlu, who we lost in 2009. Since 2010, with the support of Sabancı University's Arts and Social Sciences Faculty, the award has aimed to support gender-based research on Turkey and encourage young researchers in her memory. The Dicle Koğacıođlu Article Award application is open to researchers who are currently in a graduate or doctorate program or who have completed one in the past two years, and is due in September of each year. The results of the award are presented at a conference organized each December.
